NOTES AND ORDERS

A temporary establishment of one Amuldar on Rs 7/- and 2 peons on Rs 5/- each was sanctioned for one year in G.O. 11987-88 dated 19-6-07. Subsequently, the working of the temporary establishment having been reported to be satisfactory, the establishment was ordered to be continued

P

The President now states that the Patel is indispensable for the collection of octroi duty and to prevent smuggling of goods subject to octroi duty and proposes that the ~~services~~ services of one of the temporary peons may be dispensed with and his pay utilized for remunerating the Patel.

The President's proposal involves the employment of 2 agencies for collecting octroi duty, One (an) agency is being paid by Govt and the other (by) will have to be rewarded by payment of commission @ 5% on the amount collected It may not be easy to find out the actual amount collected by the Patel

It is significant that the President has reported in his letter No 436 dy 22-7-08 that the collection of octroi by departmental agency was more effectual than before, now reports that the Patel is indispensable for the collection of octroi duty.
